Hymnal 460

All baptized Christians are welcome to receive Holy Communion at the Lord's Table.

In our church, you may receive both the bread and the wine or the bread alone. Kneel or stand at the altar rail, open your hands, and the priest will put the bread in your palm. (Let the priest know if you need gluten-free bread.)

The deacon will then offer wine from the common cup. If you prefer not to drink from the chalice, you may use intinction. If you do not wish to receive the wine at all, simply cross your arms on your chest after consuming the bread.

Please tell the usher if you are unable to come to the altar rail. The sacrament can be brought to you at your pew.

We are the Body of Christ &
We are not alone!

St. James' Episcopal Church is a parish in the Episcopal Diocese of Milwaukee. Our diocese is lead by our bishop, the Right Reverend Steven A. Miller, the 11th bishop of Milwaukee.

Through the Episcopal Church we are a member of the worldwide Anglican Communion. The Archbishop of Canterbury is the spiritual head of the Anglican Communion. There are 38 "provinces" in the Communion, each being autonomous in governance.

The Anglican Communion is the third largest branch of the Christian Church. The two larger being the Roman Catholic Church and the Eastern Orthodox Churches.

3. Maintaining a financial commitment (pledge) or other "contribution of record" that supports the life and ministry of St. James' Church.
4. Sharing in the visible mission of St. James' through one of its many service groups, educational opportunities, or other ministries, keeping in mind that we are committed to bearing witness to God in Christ both within the parish, and to the wider community and world.
